Twenty-Eighth Sunday In Ordinary Time

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 10, 2021

Introduction/Priest Celebrant:

My brothers and sisters:

The Lord indeed fills us with his love and we joyfully sing his praises

Now, let us turn to him with confidence as we bring him all our intentions.

Intentions/Deacon/Lector:

For all the members of the Church, that they will be prompted by the power of the Gospel to leave behind anything that separates us from Christ and his kingdom.

Let us pray to the Lord. R† Lord hear our prayer.

For peace in every part of the world, that it will come quickly to those regions most afflicted by war and violence.

Let us pray to the Lord. R† Lord hear our prayer.

For all the prayers and petitions that fill our heart, especially to do our part in making Christ and his Gospel known, that they may ascend to our loving Father in heaven as we make them one with the Sacrifice of his Son on earth.

Let us pray to the Lord. R† Lord hear our prayer.

For ourselves, that we may gain wisdom of heart and live according to the way of the Lord, and for the sick, the suffering and all those who have died, that they may pass over to the glory of heaven.

Let us pray to the Lord. R† Lord hear our prayer.

Concluding Prayer

Priest Celebrant

Almighty Father, you give us your grace to prosper the work of our hands.

We pray you will also show us your favor as we ask you to hear these and all our prayers through Christ our Lord. All: Amen.

Twenty-Ninth Sunday In Ordinary Time

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2021

Introduction/Priest Celebrant:

My brothers and sisters:

The kindness of the Lord is upon us and so we place our hope in him.

Let us turn to our Father in faith trusting he will hear our prayers.

Intentions/Deacon/Lector:

For all the Missionaries throughout the Church, that they may know the benefit of our prayers and support so to continue to proclaim the saving Word of God in every circumstance.

Let us pray to the Lord. R† Lord hear our prayer.

For all people surrounded by violence and war, that they may soon be rescued for safety and peace by the mercy and compassion of the Lord.

Let us pray to the Lord. R† Lord hear our prayer.

For all the many petitions and intentions that we bring to the altar, especially for the renewed holiness of all the members of the Church, that as they are joined to the priestly offering of Christ in this Eucharist they will be pleasing to our Father as He receives this sacrifice from the Church.

Let us pray to the Lord. R† Lord hear our prayer.

For ourselves, that we may imitate more closely the example of Jesus, servant of all, and for the sick, the suffering and all those who have died, that they may have the promises of Christ in heaven.

Let us pray to the Lord. R† Lord hear our prayer.

Concluding Prayer

Priest Celebrant

Almighty God, you are our help and our shield.

We ask you with confidence to listen to our needs and grant them according to your holy will through Christ our Lord. All: Amen.

Universal Prayers: Please recite these for the weekend of World Mission Sunday.

My brothers and sisters:
The Lord does great things for us and we are filled with joy.
Let us ask the Lord now to hear our many prayers.

Intentions/Deacon/Lector:

For Christians all throughout the world,
that they may be renewed in their Missionary vocation to bear witness to all that Christ Jesus makes known to us.

For all people afflicted by natural disasters that they may have a swift relief from their distress and may have every type of assistance in their need.
Let us pray to the Lord. R† Lord hear our prayer.

For all the prayers and concerns that fill our hearts at this time, especially for Missionaries all throughout the Church and the on-going work of the Pontifical Mission Societies, who in Philadelphia has served the Missions for 110 Years.
May they be raised in union with this offering of Christ and find a pleasing hearing by our Father in Heaven.
Let us pray to the Lord. R† Lord hear our prayer.

For ourselves, that we will have eyes to see the way to follow Jesus in all things, and for the sick, the suffering and all those who have died, that they may rejoice with all the angels and saints in glory.
Let us pray to the Lord. R† Lord hear our prayer.

Concluding Prayer

Priest Celebrant

Almighty Father,
in your goodness we ask you to hear and answer
these and all our prayers
through Christ our Lord. All: Amen.
